

STAT

Dear Bill,

STAT

When I wrote you about [redacted]

I did not know of your appointment. Since then Audrey has returned from New York with the news and Arthur Krock's editorial.

Bill, I have tried to go through life without asking favors of my friends — because of pride, I suppose, rather than lack of confidence that my friends would help if asked! STAT I asked you to help my attempts to get a job at [redacted]

[redacted] a year ago, which is the first time, to the best of my knowledge, that I have ever asked you for anything for myself.

And now I'm going to swallow my pride again and ask you for a job.

When the Korean situation broke I was given reason to believe I would be called back into active service. The C.O. of the [redacted] personally requested my recall and stated that a T.O. vacancy for a Colonel and a position [redacted] vacancy as W.M. Exec. O. existed in his command, that I was personally guaranteed [redacted] thru

Past experience, ability, etc. and by virtue of my having been trained for this specific job has given Mobilization Day assignee. Two weeks later
AF HQs answered the request. I quote,

"Request denied; this HQs does not contemplate
the recall of field grade Reserve officers."

In the meantime I have completed means for operation of the [redacted] STAT the ranch, signed the papers, and deliver on Oct. first.

I'd like a job. I need one.

I have leased

STAT

I'll go anywhere, do anything, either as a civilian or as an AF officer. Salary is important if I can live on it, tho a Colonel's salary on active duty would help.

Most important, I'd like to work for you.

Yours,

[redacted]

STAT